Tahoe Donner's Robb Etnyre Elected to CACM's Board of Directors Team

Truckee, Calif. (Feb.6, 2015) – Tahoe Donner Association is pleased to announce that General Manager, Robb Etnyre, is one of the newest additions to the California Association of Community Managers, Inc. (CACM) 2015 board of directors.

“Tahoe Donner is a thriving mountain community built upon guiding principles with a goal to provide exceptional outdoor recreation, member services, community events and programs; otherwise known as a large scale community in the common interest development world,” said Etnyre. “It is an honor to join the CACM’s board of directors in order to work within a corporate board construct with CACM’s management team to continue to improve an industry association which serves community management professionals that manage common interest developments (CIDs) in which 38 percent of California residents reside.”

Etnyre, along with Amber Nelson, John Cligny, Phyllis Harkins, and Melinda Young, were elected during a statewide CACM membership election. The newly elected board of directors, including Etnyre, met at the annual membership meeting that took place on Jan. 29 in Oakland.

CACM is a professional trade association aimed at instilling success in the California common interest development industry, including large scale communities like Tahoe Donner to small multi-residential communities and portfolio management companies who manage multiple properties. CACM promotes and upholds higher standards and ethical behavior, in addition to providing professional educational and certification programs covering a wide range of community management topics. CACM is comprised exclusively of community association managers and practitioners, and Tahoe Donner Association is elated to have Etnyre join the team.
