IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- Trail riders must be at least 7 years old and 4 feet tall. Our weight limit is approximately 215 pounds.
- All riders 18 and under must have a parent/guardian sign a Liability Waiver
- PROPER ATTIRE: All visitors should wear long pants and close-toed shoes. We do not permit sandals, Texas or flip-flops on the grounds. Wear sensible clothing that you won't mind getting a little dusty. Tennis shoes are acceptable for trail and pony rides. We don't recommend hiking boots because they tend to get caught in the stirrups.
- HELMETS: Helmets are mandatory for all riders under the age of 18 and are strongly recommended for those 18 and older. Helmets are provided free of charge. Riders may bring their own certified riding helmet if they wish.
- Plan to arrive 20 minutes prior to your scheduled trail ride
- Bring sunglasses on sunny days
- Bring sunblock and any specific allergy medicine needed. We walk through open fields and flowering trees so allergies can kick in
- Be well hydrated for your high-altitude activities
- 2 Hour trail rides are more challenging and are not available for beginning groups
- Our retail shop, is open seven days a week and carries Breyer model horse toys, t-shirts, hats, sweat shirts, sunscreen, insect repellent and water bottles.

ON ARRIVAL

- The Equestrian Center is open from at 9:00AM to 3:00PM.
- The Group Leader should check in at the Equestrian center 30 minutes before the scheduled ride. They should plan to arrive before the main group to confirm numbers, complete payment, turn in parent signed Liability Waivers.
- Group leaders, chaperones, or parents must sign the rental forms for each minor.
- Designate a meeting spot/time for lunch, breaks, and the end of the day departure.
- Have fun!
