Truckee, Calif. (January 3, 2018) – Tahoe Donner announced its General Manager Robb Etnyre has been elected to serve on the California Association of Community Managers, Inc. (CACM) 2018 board of directors for a second consecutive term.

CACM is a professional trade association comprised exclusively of community association managers and leaders aimed at installing success in the California common interest development industry. Etnyre, along with Phyllis Harkins, Liz Avalon, Liza DeJesus, and Ed Szaky, were elected during a statewide CACM membership election. Each will serve a three-year term beginning Jan. 1, 2018. The newly elected board of directors will meet at the Annual Membership Meeting on Jan. 25, 2018 in Santa Clara, Calif.

"I'm honored to be reelected to the CACM's board of directors and look forward to continuing the momentum we've generated over the past three years," said Etnyre. "Great progress has been made in developing manager education, and we aim for similar success in creating quality training and resources for association board members throughout California."
