Tahoe Donner Hires Jon Mitchell as Director of Capital Projects

Truckee, Calif (Dec. 20, 2019) – Tahoe Donner welcomes Jon Mitchell as the new Director of Capital Projects. His role is instrumental to the successful operations of Tahoe Donner Association and in supporting the association membership.

Mitchell will oversee all capital project activities at Tahoe Donner, which includes infrastructure and recreation facility improvements, in addition to routine repair and replacement reserve contracts in accordance with the association’s strategic plan, general plan and replacement reserve schedule.

A 14-year resident of Tahoe Donner, Jon Mitchell brings nearly two decades of civil engineering, planning, design and construction to Tahoe Donner. For the past 12 years, Mitchell has worked as an associate engineer at Placer County Department of Public Works where he was instrumental in planning, designing and project managing key county development initiatives that included bridges, roadways, multi-use trails, parking lots, bus shelters and environmental improvement projects. Key projects include Dollar Creek Bike Trail, SR 89/Fanny Bridge Revitalization Project and Kings Beach Water Quality Improvement Project. From 2002-2007, Mitchell worked for Fugro West Inc. in Oakland California, overseeing geotechnical engineering and construction projects.

Originally from the Adirondack Mountains in Upstate New York, Mitchell coaches for the TNT kids’ mountain bike team and Truckee AYSO where he also sits on the board of directors. He loves spending time with his family and two daughters, enjoying outdoor activities including mountain biking, skiing, hiking and fishing.
