Tahoe Donner Welcomes Erika Stohl as Director of Human Resources

Truckee, Calif. (August 20, 2020) – Tahoe Donner Association announced today the hire of Erika Stohl as director of human resources. Stohl joins the Tahoe Donner team with 25 years of experience in human resources and operational leadership to the organization.

“We are excited to bring Erika on board in the very important role of HR director,” said David Mickaelian, Tahoe Donner general manager. “Erika’s proven track record demonstrates her commitment to organizational development, strong culture within the workplace and a balance of business needs—all while supporting our most valuable assets, which are our employees.”

Recently, Stohl spent 6 years as the area director of human resources based out of Resort at Squaw Creek, where she supported 13 properties across 3 states. Prior to moving to the Lake Tahoe area, she opened the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in Park City, Utah. As assistant general manager, she led the operations team in overseeing the rental management agreements and working directly with property owners. While living in Portland, Oregon, Stohl opened the Embassy Suites by Hilton Portland Downtown Hotel, where she was promoted from human resources director to assistant general manager and served as interim general manager for multiple Hilton Hotels Corporation locations.

Pursuing her passion of giving back, Stohl spent time volunteering in Malawi, Africa helping children with special needs, reading to the elderly at Robison Health & Rehabilitation Center in Portland, participating in food and clothing drives with Adopt-A-Native-Elder Program in Navajo Nation and supporting local efforts in Truckee to encourage youth to join the hospitality industry.

Stohl has lived in the Truckee area for nearly seven years and currently resides in Tahoe Donner with her husband Jeff. Together, they share the love of skiing, hiking, biking and traveling internationally.
