

ANNUAL DINNER IS GRAND SOCIAL AND FINANCIAL SUCCESS

This year's Tahoe Donner Giving Fund Annual Dinner at the Pavilion Tent at The Lodge Restaurant & Pub was a record success! We raised $26,630 from the 115 participating TD neighbors. Attendees enjoyed a champagne welcome, a terrific dinner prepared by Chef Lew and his staff and an historical talk from Jerry Blackwill, a Tahoe Donner member and president of the Railroad Society. Everyone present was inspired when they met several of our scholarship recipients.

The Giving Fund Committee had gathered an amazing array of silent auction items ranging from sunrise groomer rides at Tahoe Donner Cross Country Ski Center to e-bikes, art work, sporting event tickets, a SUP and much more. Attendees did their part by placing healthy bids on all the items. We even had two members agree to match a portion of the bidding! The generosity of everyone was truly inspiring.

Jennifer Jennings, who sits on the Tahoe Donner Board of Directors, described the dinner as "the event of the season." We hope you will join us next year for a truly enjoyable evening that makes a real impact on our greater community.

Please consider volunteering for the committee. It is a wonderful way to give back to the community. Send an email to tahoedonnercares@gmail.com.
